United Way of Bradford County Welcomes Three New Board Members

Athens, PA — The United Way of Bradford County is proud to announce the addition of three outstanding community leaders to its Board of Directors: Amanda Alexander of Gannon Associates Insurance, Jenny Marino of the Bradford County Conservation District, and Matthew Williams of the Bradford County Progress Authority.

These new members bring a wealth of experience, passion, and local insight to the organization's mission of improving lives and strengthening communities across Bradford County.

"We are absolutely thrilled to welcome Amanda, Jenny, and Matthew to our board," said Roberta Coleman, Executive Director of United Way of Bradford County. "Each of them brings a unique perspective and deep commitment to our community. Their leadership and expertise will be invaluable as we continue to expand our impact. At United Way, it's all about One Community—One Mission."

The United Way of Bradford County Board of Directors plays a vital role in guiding the organization's strategic direction, ensuring accountability, and championing initiatives that support education, financial stability, and health for all residents.

We invite everyone in our community to join us in welcoming our new board members and to support our mission. Whether through volunteering, donating, or spreading the word, your involvement helps us build a stronger Bradford County for all.
